

<https://www.driftpointe.com/job/songwriter/>

Contemporary Gospel Songwriter

Description

We are seeking experienced Gospel/Contemporary Gospel musicians and songwriters in the metro Atlanta, GA area. We are creating a writing team comprised of exceptionally gifted, anointed individuals, with a passion for music and a devotion to Christ.

Qualified Candidates:

- 1.) Are accomplished musicians who want to join a writing team, with a goal of creating the next great praise and worship songs?
- 2.) Are Sunday musicians who seek to use their gifts for the next level?
- 3.) Are individuals who have friends, family and/or acquaintances or a desire to become involved in the gospel music industry.
- 4.) Are seeking to do more than play only on Sunday. (You can still do that too)

We are seeking to create music that honors God, with professional quality and reverence.

If you're interested in hearing more, APPLY TODAY!!

This may be the word from God you've been waiting for! Let's go Team.

Responsibilities

- * Collaborate with your writing peers to write and develop original material.
- * Assist in the tracking and session work required to create a marketable product.
- * Assist in developing a "live performance" band and choir that can worship amongst the local churches. (in-city travel required)

Qualifications

- * 10+ Years experience as a musician - specifically adept with Gospel/Contemporary Gospel music.
- * 5+ Years live performance experience
- * Ability to read and write musical notation (preferred/not required)

Job Benefits

- *Exposure to professional resources and opportunities.

Contacts

Alysia Baker

Director: Communications & Recruiting

Hiring organization

DriftPointe

Contract Employee

Contractor

Beginning of employment

May 1, 2020

Duration of employment

Undefined

Industry

Music

Job Location

Remote work from: Atlanta, GA
(Surrounding Metro Area)

Working Hours

Flexible

Date posted

April 2, 2020

Valid through

01.04.2021